

FEBRUARY 17, 1835.

Read twice, and committed to a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

MR. HARPER, of New Hampshire, from the Committee on Commerce, reported the following bill:

A BILL

For the relief of William Stannard and others.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 the collector at New London, in the State of Connecticut, be 4 authorized and directed to pay to William Stannard, and the 5 owners, officers, and crew of the fishing schooner Tryon, of 6 ninety-four and sixteen ninety-fifths tons burden, which
7 sailed from the port of New London on the third day of June,
8 eighteen hundred and thirty-four, on a fishing voyage to the 9 straits of Belle Isle, the same she is entitled to receive by law
10 as a bounty or drawback, for having been employed three
11 months and a half in the cod fisheries, and using foreign salt
12 on which the duties had been paid.
